

2019 Smithfield Ham & Yam Festival
Entertainment Application
May 4, 2019

Thank you for your interest in performing at the 2019 Ham & Yam Festival! The Ham & Yam Festival accepts all applications and will be the determining authority for approval and scheduling all performances, and respectfully reserves the right to decline any entry.

Type or print VERY clearly, incomplete applications will not be accepted.

Name of Organization/Band _____
Type of performance (Dance, vocal etc.) _____ Length of performance _____
Genre of Music performed _____
Name of contact person _____
Telephone _____ Email _____
Website _____

Are you willing to perform for free? _____ If not, what is your asking fee? _____

Technical requirements: CD player, number of microphones or inputs, etc. If selected, an approved stage plot and coordination with our Production Technicians will be required prior to scheduled performance.

Entertainment Biography: Provide specifics about the performance. Include style, awards accomplishments, and recent or past performances. This information is used to introduce your performance to the audience and to determine eligibility. (Use separate page if necessary)

All performers/equipment must be at stage area 45 minutes prior to scheduled performance time.

Application deadline is Friday, February 15, 2019. Applicants will be notified by Thursday, February 28 if they have been selected. For questions contact Sarah Edwards, Executive Director at 919-934-0887, or e-mail: sarah@downtownsmithfield.com.

This application is filled out to the best of my knowledge, and I understand submission deadline. I will abide by all rules, safety regulations and directions set forth by the Ham & Yam Festival.

Signature _____ Date _____

Including photos, links to recordings or performances, or other information will give the Ham & Yam Entertainment Committee sufficient information to assess if your performance is the type/level of entertainment we are looking for.

Please email completed application to sarah@downtownsmithfield.com.